A TANTALUS CUP. By Mrs. Harry

BENNETT EDWARDS. 3 vols. 31*s.* 6*d.*

Scotsman.—"It is written with very considerable narrative and descriptive power."

Athenaeum.—"Pathetic enough to be read from beginning to end."

Queen.—"A feeling of sincere gratitude possesses us when we find a first essay in fiction free from the manifold errors of omission and commission which usually bristle on every page."

CUPID and the SPHINX. By Har-

FORD FLEMING. 3 vols. 31*s.* 6*d.*

Academy.—"At once recalls 'A Nile Novel' to mind. Like that clever story, it is of American authorship, and its scene lies chiefly in Egypt, while its characters are Europeans and Americans."

Athenaeum.—"There is much freshness about 'Cupid and the Sphinx.' Though Cairo and the Nile are not quite new ground, they have not been much used by novelists, and Mr. Fleming shows that there is much to be made out of them.....When he can also write with vigour and good taste, as Mr. Fleming does, it follows that his book must have no small merit."

The LADY of TREFERNE. By

HARRIET S. HILL. 3 vols. 31*s.* 6*d.*

Scotsman.—"Very good work indeed, not merely because of its intrinsic excellence, but also from the many signs it bears of care and thought in the workmanship. Its main subject has often been handled in fiction, but seldom with more of freshness or truth than in this book. The tale has numerous side episodes, each with its own independent thread of interest; and one great charm of it arises from the skill and conscientious finish with which the numerous personages are individualised and portrayed."

BRAIN WORK is undoubtedly far more exhausting than bodily labour. Great thinkers, and persons burdened with cares, have the most need of those sustaining and restorative agents so mercifully supplied in the vegetable world, which, wisely used, go far to support the powers of nature. Dr. T. LAUDER BRUNTON says in the Contemporary Review—"The late Lord DERBY, when translating Homer, was accustomed to eat BRANDIED CHERRIES;" and Dr. ALBERT J. BERNAYS says:—"If I come home after any worry I shall never hesitate to set myself right by taking my favorite and perfect remedy, five or six Brandied Cherries. In three or four minutes I find myself wonderfully soothed and quieted, and I have never experienced any ill effects." The essence and virtue of the Morella Cherry in a concentrated form, combined with the finest Cognac, is now to be found in that well-known and delicious Liqueur, "GRANT'S MORELLA CHERRY BRANDY," which, taken alone or with water, produces in a greatly increased degree all those good effects above described. The Liqueur may be procured through any Wine Merchant, at all Bars and Restaurants, and of the Manufacturer, THOMAS GRANT, Distiller, Maidstone.

The Athenæum says:—"It is beyond question the best complete history of Russia which has appeared in the West. Mr. W. R. S. Ralston, in the Academy, says:—"We gladly recognise in the present volume a trustworthy history of Russia. M.
